

We are pleased to announce the creation of the Annmar Chronicles, a new fantasy world with Knights, Elves, Dwarves, Fairies, Sorcerers, and Orcs. It's a world with magic and great battles, the rise and fall of Empires and Kingdoms. It's an unwritten world except for a few key events and the names of some kingdoms during the First Age. You can help create the world of Annmar by contributing stories and the written histories.

About the Annmar Chronicles

The world of Annmar is a fantasy world spanning over three different ages. The first is the Age of Magic. The second is the Age of Empire and Monsters. The third is the Age of Men, Monsters, and Magic. Annmar is the world created by the five gods. Over three ages you will see the rise and fall of kingdoms and empires that will reshape the world including the known map of Annmar. You will help create the stories and histories of Annmar after the fall of the last god through three different ages. New mythologies and religions will be introduced in Annmar. Heroes and Legends will be born out of great battles and the world wars of Annmar. Magic will come back into the world only to disappear and give rise to unspeakable monsters and then come back where magic and monsters rule the world of Annmar alongside mankind. Dive into this wonderful fantasy world and see the progression of a new civilization with rich and diverse characters that will help define it. We invite writers, illustrators, and role players to help create the world of Annmar, through their written word, artwork, and role play.

As a writer, you will be able to create new characters, individual houses or clans under a kingdom. You will also be able to create sub gods, religions, and mythologies that will be apart of the Annmar lore.

Get Published!

Truesource Publishing will be publishing the stories and artwork you create in the world of Annmar. That's right, you will get published.
